

2020 Application and Code of Ethics for Coaches

As a member of the Christian Baseball League of Las Cruces, NM coaching staff, I will strive to maintain the following as my highest League priorities:

1. To serve as a role model of the League's high standards of moral character and decency to my players and colleagues, providing a positive, constructive, and sportsmanlike approach to dealing with all aspects of League baseball including disagreements, conflicts, and disappointments.
2. To strive to increase my own proficiency in imparting the skills of the game of baseball to my colleagues and my players.
3. To impart these skills to my colleagues and players to the best of my abilities.
4. I understand the importance of obeying the scriptural injunction to "abstain from all appearance of evil" (1 Thessalonians 5:22), and therefore, while in the presence of the players and their families, will abide by the following Christian Baseball League standards.
5. Coaches will refrain from using profanity, alcoholic beverages, tobacco (vape machines), illegal controlled substances, outbursts of anger, denigrating remarks, sexual harassment, and unsportsmanlike conduct.
6. I submit myself to the League authorities of the Christian Baseball League of Las Cruces, NM, requesting that they support me as a member of the coaching staff by holding me accountable for my maintenance of the priorities and standards. I acknowledge that League authorities have complete and full authority to resolve any disputes between myself and other coaches, players or parents, and further acknowledge that any refusal to abide by the decisions of the Christian Baseball League may result in my suspension as a coach.
7. I will abide and respect the final decision made by the Christian Baseball League of Las Cruces, New Mexico in any matter in question or arbitration.
